ABOUT THE BOOK

A tragic story questioning the meaning of love within marriages, affairs, friendships and ultimately with Sun Sharers. It exemplifies true love, bad love and unrequited love where the grey areas of the dubious spiritual world colour what is considered to be 'Real Life'.

Jack George Edmunson is a man in search of spiritual rebirth and 'Real Life' in what appears to be a mid life crisis but in truth it is about overcoming weakness found in 'man' when destiny demands courage to find a true path. He is in a bad marriage pursuing a life of materiality with superficial friends. He can't understand why he has a Clairvoyant and an Astrologer telling him to pursue a simple life in Catalonia and so he denies their messages and the reality of his spirit guide called Nim who acts as his conscience.

The pain from his wife, the manipulative Melanie and the deep love for his son Joseph are exacerbated by the complex lives of his six friends and their secret intrigues. The convenience of their marriages is challenged when Jack has an affair with Bridget his best friend's wife. An irreverent Jack highlights the complexities underlying the rut of modern living and asks if there is a better way.

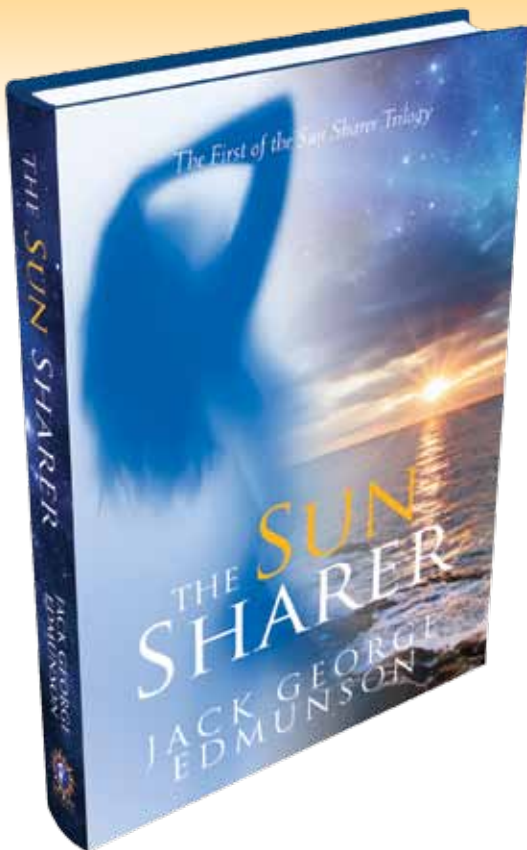

Jack is determined to comprehend if he truly has a different path to follow as the family start living in Catalonia, Spain. The pull from his past is accentuated as he meets Karina and falls in love believing that she is his Sun Sharer. This enhances his devotion to the place and its culture which clashes with his hate of 'the Cheshire set lifestyle'. His wife and friends mock his vision for a simple 'Real Life' and realising how hard it is to achieve his dream he becomes more frustrated and outrageous.

The fantastic sex of his dalliances is contrasted to the poor sex within his failing marriage and his wife's use of her sexual favours to control him.

The love for his son Jojo is contrasted with his own for his Alzheimer's Mother who is gradually deserting him like his wife and friends.

As Jack starts to accept the truth of his future he is drawn further into his past as he fights his way into a world we all believe in but nobody dares to venture.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Jack is an inspiring new writer with a unique fast moving style for today's market.

This book will be read on many different levels by the thirty to sixty-year olds attending the dinner parties thrown by the Cheshire and Home Counties 'sets' and then avidly discussed.

Having lost every possession to pursue his dream to be an author, he is living in a caravan in order to advertise The Sun Sharer throughout the length and breadth of the UK and Catalonia.

Fifty-six years young and twice divorced, he still remains single and is looking for his own Sun Sharer.

Jack decries materialistic people, as modern life can seem obscene when people suffer and die because of the lack of basics. He is not trying to solve the world's problems but believes there is someone who will be there as a catalyst to change the unintentional direction in which we are all heading.

That person, although a child now, will be available and ready when needed.
